

FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE

4+1 MASTER OF EDUCATION

TRANSFORMATIONAL CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

The Master of Education in Transformational Curriculum and Instruction at Florida Southern College offers a 4+1 degree program for Education majors. This program is designed for individuals interested in earning a curriculum and instruction degree that advances classroom teaching skills through research-based strategies and techniques. This degree is focused on transformational teaching methods including active, student-centered, collaborative, experiential, and problem-based learning. These methods combined with the examination of how dynamic relationships between teachers, students, and a shared body of knowledge in the transformational teaching field will promote increased student performance, personal growth, and explore the positive impact that highly effective instructional leaders make on their students.

Early Admission (4+1 MEd)

Students are encouraged to apply for admission during their junior year. If admitted, seniors may enroll in one graduate course during their first semester and one graduate course during their second semester.

Convenient Schedule

- Scheduling is flexible and convenient for Florida Southern College Elementary Education seniors.
- Coursework is delivered 100% online.

Small Classes

Highly distinguished faculty are dedicated to supporting students in earning this degree. In addition to dedicated faculty, you will have small classes, which will provide one-on-one attention and allow you to learn in an online format with your cohort.

Academic Advisor

From the moment you enroll, the MEd Director will be assigned as your secondary Academic Advisor to see you through your graduate experience from start to finish. Your advisors will help you develop an educational plan that matches your schedule and priorities.

Special Education Coursework

Throughout the Master of Education program, students may choose to extend their learning by enrolling in special education courses. These courses will enable educators to develop skills and understanding of the education of exceptional students.
